_____/

Plaintiff, Robert E Jacobsen, hereby submits their updated Case Management Conference Statement.

As it was stated in the Defendant's updated Case Management Conference Statement dated May 15, 2008, the trustee in the Plaintiff's Bankruptcy case had scheduled a hearing, for May 28, 2008, regarding the sell of the claim, which is the subject of this case.

The U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, Honorable Brenda T. Rhoades, entered an order approving the sale of the claim on June 5, 2008 (See Docket # 175, attached hereto as Exhibit 1). Although the order was entered, the final transaction of the sale of the claim has not been processed, and may take up to one week.

Furthermore, the Plaintiff has a conflict in his schedule, in the fact that the Plaintiff is scheduled for an Adversary Hearing on June 10, 2008 in Plano Bankruptcy Courtroom in Plano, Texas, and therefore cannot reasonably return to California to attend the Case Management Conference Hearing scheduled for June 12, 2008.

Plaintiff would request that the Case Management Conference Hearing presently scheduled for June 12, 2008, be continued for at least thirty days. Therefore, plaintiff requests that a continued Case Management be set at least thirty days after the original scheduled date of June 12, 2008, to allow the hearing scheduled for June 12, 2008 to go forward and an order on that hearing to be entered.

Dated: June 5, 2008
